Our Marketing & Strategy team is not complete without you. You will be a valuable contributor to our success with your creativity and content-creating skills.

Who are we?

IHP is an institute of the Leibniz Association and conducts research and development of silicon-based systems and ultra-high-frequency circuits and technologies including new materials. It develops innovative solutions for application areas such as wireless and broadband communication, security, medical technology, industry 4.0, automotive industry, and aerospace.

The position:

The following tasks await you:

- Photo and video making
- Assisting in implementing the IHP's Marketing Strategy
- Content writing
- Editing of marketing materials
- Support at planning and holding events

Your profile:

You are our perfect candidate if:

- You already have experience in Content Creation and Content/Social Media Marketing (ideally also video making)
- You are an Adobe Suite user
- You know the fundamentals of design (composition, color, shapes, etc.)
- You communicate in English and German confidently
- You are determined, creative, and are not afraid of challenging tasks
- You are a student for at least two next semesters

Our offer:

It is important to us to support the personal needs of our employees by offering flexible working hours and the possibility to work outside the institute. We place great emphasis on the compatibility of work and family. More information about our scientific excellence and the working environment at IHP can be found on our website.

IHP is TOTAL E-QUALITY-certified for equal opportunities for women and men at work and actively pursues equality for all genders and all groups of people. We promote the professional development of women and strongly encourage them to apply. Severely disabled applicants who are qualified according to the above criteria will be given preferential consideration in case of equal suitability.

Remuneration is in accordance with the guidelines of the state of Brandenburg on the working conditions of academic and student assistants.
